Q. How will you pay for the services provided?

A fee may be charged for a Statement of Advice. This may be waived or partially offset by brokerage or fees if you proceed. Upon implementation of the recommendations, our Authorised Representative may receive an upfront fee, brokerage (for risk insurance products) or a combination of both depending on how you agree to pay for the services. Fees can be based on total funds placed, the time spent on the Statement of Advice or as agreed between you and our Authorised Representative. This agreement will be disclosed in your Statement of Advice.

Life Insurance advice

If you decide to purchase a life insurance product, unless stated to the contrary in your Statement of Advice, Synchron has elected to receive brokerage from the product providers and not invoice you directly for services provided. Depending on the product recommended and the decision made in relation to the spread of income, this brokerage ranges from 25% to 130% of the first year premium and between 2.5% and 35% of the renewal premiums as each one is paid. Brokerage paid to Synchron is not an additional cost to you, but is paid by the insurer. For example, if your premium is $1,000 per annum, we will receive an initial brokerage from $250 to $1,300 and ongoing brokerage from $25 to $350 per annum. Our Authorised Representative may invoice you for insurance products discontinued within the first 13 months from the date of acceptance by the insurer, at an hourly rate with a minimum of two hours. This charge is to cover the administration costs outlined.

Investments and Superannuation advice

If you decide to proceed on the investment or superannuation advice provided, the fee you may be charged will be dollar based or may be calculated as a percentage of the amounts invested. The fee may also be reflective of an hourly rate. All fees and brokerage are paid to Synchron who deducts a fee for the services it provides as the licensee and then pays the balance to your adviser subject to any agreements. Some of our Authorised Representatives have referral arrangements with other professionals. Where a referral agreement is in place between the Authorised Representative and a third party, a fee of up to 50% may be paid or received. Detailed disclosure of amounts and percentages will appear in your Statement of Advice if applicable. A review service fee may also be payable from time to time, depending on any extra work required such as a major restructuring.
